FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2010 NATIONAL CONFERENCE CELEBRATING 35TH ANNIVERSARY

The Aboriginal Nurses Association of Canada (A.N.A.C.), together with its collaborative partners, the Canadian Men in Nursing Group (CMNG), Canadian Nurses for Health and the Environment (CNHE) and Diabetes Nursing Interest Group of the RNAO (DNIG) is proud to announce its 2010 National Conference “Linking our Knowledge through Diverse Interests” will be hosted at Hilton Toronto Airport, Toronto, ON, October 25 – 27, 2010.

This national conference celebrates not only the 35th Anniversary of A.N.A.C., but also celebrates the many changes in nursing practice and collaborative distinct partnerships is the 2010 International Year of the Nurse. This celebration provides opportunities for Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal Nurses and other health professionals to come together to share, support, network and link our knowledge across a wide variety of diverse, yet overlapping health topics.

Abstracts that reflect these special diverse interests, including Aboriginal health, environment, diabetes, and the Anniversary themes (See complete list on website below) will be given priority. Given that, all abstracts on Aboriginal health and nursing related topics are welcome to be submitted for review no later than May 25, 2010

Conference details available on A.N.A.C. website at <http://anac.on.ca/conferences.php>
