

Biography:
Rhonda Goodtrack
Native Access Program to Nursing
University of Saskatchewan

Rhonda Goodtrack is the Director for Education and Secretary-Treasurer for the Aboriginal Nurses Association of Canada. Rhonda is employed in the Native Access Program to Nursing as a nursing advisor at the University of Saskatchewan and is currently on secondment by the College of Nursing.

In her role as an Aboriginal Nursing Advisor, an important part of her work involved recruitment and retention of our aboriginal students in the Nursing Education Program of Saskatchewan. To address retention issues, Rhonda coordinated the A.N.A.C. Aboriginal Student Nurse Mentorship project at the Saskatoon campus.

Miss Goodtrack's previous work experience includes public health nursing, primary health nursing, and an office manager in the petroleum wholesale industry. Her education background includes baccalaureates in Physiology, Nursing and a Certificate in Business Administration. Rhonda is a Lakota from the Wood Mountain First Nation in southern Saskatchewan.
